Professional Expertise

Ron Bollinger has been a key broker with Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce's industrial and investments teams, since 2001. He has been active in commercial real estate for thirteen years, after owning and operating a distribution business in Salt Lake City for twenty three years. Ron's demonstrated work ethic, business acumen, and enthusiasm for meeting new goals have made him a valued member of Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce's highly productive industrial and investments services. His experience has proven invaluable to clients in achieving their financial, business and most importantly, commercial real estate objectives. His familiarity with real estate law and the legal issues affecting real estate transactions brings a unique perspective and service to his clients. Over the past twelve years, Ron has leased or sold more than two million square feet of industrial and office space with a thirty-five million dollar transaction value.
