Professional Expertise

Travis Healey is an industrial specialist with Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce. He began his career in industrial real estate in 1998. Travis learned early on in his career the value of team work. The first four years of his career he partnered with Bob Mills, one of Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce's top producing agents. They averaged more transactions per year than any other commercial brokers in Utah. Travis has an unparalleled knowledge and expertise in the Industrial market, but attributes his success to the principle of hard work and sacrifice.

Travis believes that all Tenants', despite square footage requirement, all deserve the same level of service and commitment. This has earned Travis a great deal of respect and loyalty in the brokerage community from both Landlords and Tenants. He recognizes that making the best possible real estate decision can play a critical role in a company's success, and works with a single minded determination to accomplish all of his clients' goals. Through experience in working with scores of clients, Travis has become adept at pinpointing a company's needs, anticipating potential problems or challenges and ultimately achieving their desired results.

He was a Top 10 producer for Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce in 2009 and 2013. Travis has a track record of completing over 50 transactions and has maintained this consistently over the last 5 years.
