Professional Expertise

Steven H. Koch is a Senior Property Manager with Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce where he manages commercial properties in an efficient and value enhancing manner that is consistent with the overall strategic plan for each property. In addition he is accountable for all business, financial, personnel, and management.

Prior to joining Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce, Steve was a Property Manager with Newmark Grubb ACRES (formerly NAI West), where he managed 800,000+ square feet of commercial property. He also worked as a Senior Property Manager with Coldwell Banker Commercial, NRT, and Transwestern Commercial Services, managing over 900,000+ total square feet between the three.

Steve's nearly 30 years of experience within the industry makes him invaluable to building owners. He currently manages over 600,000 square feet of retail and office properties along the Wasatch Front. Considered a skilled negotiator and problem solver, Steve has extensive management, sales, financial and corporate operations experience. He prides himself and his business on the strong, long-lasting relationships he has built with owners over the years, most of whom retain him as their Property Manager regardless of which firm he is aligned with.
