Professional Expertise

Bob Mills is an Executive Director – Industrial Specialist with Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce where he specializes in the leasing and selling of industrial space.

With 30 years of experience and over 2,500 individual lease and sales transactions, Bob is an adept negotiator whose abilities translate into one of the highest closing ratios of any agent working in the Salt Lake area. On average, Bob executes 100 transactions a year, continually placing him as one of Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce's top ten agents.

Bob has honed his skills through years of experience in meeting the requirements of a broad and diverse range of clientele. Widely respected among colleagues and clients alike, Bob's knowledge of the market, wry sense of humor and easygoing style have induced many companies to rely on him exclusively to execute their real estate needs. His realistic approach to the nuances and realities of the market are a benefit to owners to market their facilities, as well as making the best possible use of tenant real estate dollars.

Bob was recently nominated for industrial broker of the year for the 2012 CCIM Business Excellence Awards. In his spare time he enjoys, tennis, golf, and family events with his wife and eight children.
