Professional Expertise

David Nadler joined Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce in 2013 after 20 years of owning and operating a national serviced office business. Regent Business Centers had over 20 locations throughout the United States and was sold to Regus PLC at the end of 2012. He has extensive experience in commercial real estate leasing through his efforts and years of expansion at Regent.

Recently, David has been actively purchasing commercial and retail properties in the Park City area. He has also opened up Assemble Park City, a serviced office suite located in Newpark at Kimball Junction.

With his 20 years of experience in commercial leasing and more recent experience in commercial acquisitions, David has become a great asset to the Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce team.
