Professional Expertise

Elizabeth Moore is a Director of Industrial properties with Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce's Las Vegas office. She has over eleven years of experience in the leasing and sales of both industrial and office properties.

Elizabeth has been in the commercial real estate business since 2004. She joined Cushman & Wakefield/Commerce in 2015, after some years as a Senior Associate with Voit Real Estate Services. Elizabeth was also a Senior Associate with Newmark Grubb Knight Frank's Barton, Luciani and Moore Team, specializing in industrial and office sales and leasing, and developing valuable relationships with local and national companies, such as Wells Fargo Corporate, Sun Life Financial, The Walters Group, Koll Company, and Brookhollow Group.

She has also worked as a Director with IPG, where her primary responsibilities included industrial and office sales/leasing, and tenant/landlord representation. Prior to IPG, Elizabeth worked fifteen years in the hospitality and gaming industry. She was involved in opening both the Four Seasons Hotel, New York, and the Bellagio Resort and Casino in Las Vegas. She held positions in catering management and as concierge. Her background in customer service influences her work as a commercial real estate agent, as she continues her commitment to maintaining personable relationships with her clients.
