Professional Expertise

Annastasia Kaessner joined Cushman & Wakefield Commerce's leading office brokerage team of Alison Beddard and Peter Hanlon in 2016. Her attention to detail, strong work ethic, excellent communication skills, and approachable personality are valuable additions to her team, and to the Salt Lake City office.

Annastasia brings unique experience and skills to the Salt Lake City office. She has been, and stays involved in many community groups and functions throughout Salt Lake City, maintaining broad connections and experience around the city. Annastasia has been an integral part of running the Salt Lake City Arts Council's Living Traditions Festival, the widely-loved Twilight Concert Series, and the Utah Arts Festival. She also worked the last five years with the Sundance Film Festival, collaborating with patrons from all over the world to create a coveted environment and experience for one of the world's premier independent film events.
