Professional Expertise

Dan Hubbard is a Senior Director of Retail Services with Cushman & Wakefield Commerce and a current member of the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) and the Commercial Alliance of Las Vegas (CALV). He represents landlords and tenants, providing both parties with experienced perspective throughout the transaction process. He is quick to recognize opportunities and adept at finding solutions beneficial to all parties.

Dan began his commercial real estate career in 2003, after eight years as a direct sales professional. He joined Cushman & Wakefield Commerce in May 2007.

Dan's clients include institutional and corporate owners, as well as local developers and private individuals. He consistently maintains a listing footprint of over two million square-feet, with property sizes ranging from small strip centers to large, multi-box power centers. Averaging over seventy-five transactions per year, Dan has negotiated over $350,000,000 in commercial sales and leasing transactions since joining Cushman & Wakefield Commerce. He is consistently ranked as one of Las Vegas' top producing brokers, and closed the largest sale transaction in the Las Vegas office in 2014.

Although a resident of Las Vegas for seventeen years, Dan is a deep-rooted native of Tennessee and often "bleeds orange and white" with other passionate University of Tennessee fans.
