Professional Expertise

Jason Park joined Cushman & Wakefield Commerce as an associate agent representing office building owners and tenants. New to the industry, Jason brings fresh energy and a commitment to ensuring he understands his clients' needs, providing them with the most current and relevant information that help them make sound commercial real estate decisions for their business.

Prior to joining Cushman & Wakefield Commerce in 2015, Jason worked closely with tenants, property managers and other industry professionals as a leasing manager with Park Realty Investments LLC, in Henderson, Nevada. He is an affable, proficient communicator who clients trust to guide them in their commercial real estate pursuits.
